Otherwise, please affix an appropriate stamp.

If the Company does not receive a duly completed and signed Reply Form from you (or another response from you indicating that you object to receiving the Website Version of Corporate Communications) on or before 26 May 2015, you will be deemed, until you inform the Company otherwise by reasonable notice in writing at the office of the Share Registrar at the above address or by email to nfa.ecom@computershare.com.hk, to have elected to receive all future Corporate Communications by Website Version instead of receiving them in printed form. In that event, when the Company makes a Corporate Communication, it will only send you a notification that the Corporate Communication has been made available on the Company’s website. The notification will be sent to you by post at your address as it appears in the Company’s register of members maintained by the Share Registrar.

If you have elected (or are deemed to have elected) to receive Corporate Communications by Website Version and for any reason have difficulty in obtaining access to Corporate Communications on the Company’s website, the Company will upon request send the relevant Corporate Communications to you in printed form free of charge.

Please note that English and Chinese versions of all future Corporate Communications will be available (a) in printed form from the Company or the Share Registrar on request and (b) on the Company’s website at www.nfa360.com and the website of Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited at www.hkexnews.hk.
